RUSSIA MAKES PEACE PROPOSAL TO JAPAN

Czar Will Not Grant Cession of Territory or Indemity.

NO REPLY RECEIVED FROM JAPS

Mikado Will Determine Whether His Country Can Negotiate Peace on These Terms—Russian Attitude Described—People Eager to Buy Bonds.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The Associated Press is in a position to announce that a step in the direction of peace actually has been taken. Russia has indirectly made known to Japan the negative conditions on which peace may be concluded, namely, no cessions of territory and no indemnity, leaving Japan to determine whether negotiations can be begun upon that basis. No reply from Japan has yet reached the Russian government.

Russians' Attitude Described.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—2 p. m.—Russia's attitude was described today by a prominent diplomat as follows:

"The government is now for peace, but continues to prepare for war."

The whole situation with reference to the prosecution of the war is being carefully considered from every point by a committee sitting under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaivitch, inspector general of cavalry and consisting of minister of war Sakharoff, Vice Admiral Avellan, head of the Russian admiralty department, Minister of Finance Kokovsoff, Minister of Railroad Hilkoff, Foreign Minister Lambsdorff and several others.

Every phase of the situation, military, naval, financial, transportation, Siberian and diplomatic is being covered.

The commission's report was expected to be completed in ten days and will be prepared by Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch, and Generals Grodekoff and Kamaroff for submission to the emperor.

Eager to Buy Japanese Bonds.

Durban, Natal, March 30.—The British Japanese loan of $150,000,000 allotted to London, was well over subscribed within an hour of the time of the opening of the banks this morning. For an hour before the doors opened the investors crowded the place and throughout the morning a steady flood of applicants among who were many women, taxed the extra staffs of the banking establishments engaged to deal with the rush. The first post brought in many thousand applications and the enormous deliveries gave evidence of public interest in the loan.

Bonds Sell Well in America.

New York, March 30.—Subscription to the American half of the new $150,000,000 Japanese loan were formally opened today. The syndicate agents found themselves overwhelmed with applications. Wherever possible, preference will be given to small investors. Those applications have come by mail and telegraph from all parts of the country. What proportions, if any, of the loan will be allotted to French investors, has not been disclosed.

Second Pacific Squadron Sighted.

London, March 30.—The portion of the steamer Durt wharved here today from Rangoon, Feb. 28, reports having passed on March 19 30 warships and 14 colliers, steaming eastward 250 miles northeast of the Island of Madagascar.

It is apparently confirmed that the Russian second Pacific squadron, commanded by Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, left Nossi Be island, off the north west coast of Madagascar, about the 16th of March, and if the warships steamed very slowly, they probably formed the squadron sighted by the steamer Durt now at Durbin.

Little News from the Front.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Chief of Staff Karkevitch telegraphs from the front today that no change has taken place in the positions of the armies.

The commander in chief, General Linevitch, has inspected the second army and found the troops to be in excellent spirits.

A telegram from Gunshu Pass dated March 26 says the Russians have evacuated the railroad station at Chaoumiadzi, 40 miles below Gunshu pass, and that the Japanese are advancing.

RUSSIA IS RIPE FOR REFORMS.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Emperor Nicholas has instructed that M. Maximovitch, governor general of Warsaw, to elaborate the reforms necessary for the prosperity of Poland.

In a rescript to the governor general the emperor says:

The radical revival of civil life in the Vistula territory during the past 40 years, a series of needs has developed, upon which the government is now bestowing especial solicitude. Enemies of the existing order are seeking to provoke disturbances thus hindering the calm discussion of the reforms for which the country is ripe and at the same time some sections of the Polish population are puting forth exorbitant claims concerning limit in the employment of the state language, to which there must remain assured throughout the empire the high importance due to it, but without any superfluous or unjust exclusion of local langauges.

The emperor, accordingly, directs the government general while lawfully but firmly expressing artificially supported disturbances to "proceed to to be necessary for the prosperity of the elaboration of the reforms found the territory inseparably connected with the other parts of the Russian state.

A CRISIS THREATENS CHINA.

Victoria, B. C., March 30.—Mail advices received from Pekin by the Empress of Japan says that high officials of China recognize that China will have to pass through a grave crisis threatening the very foundations of her independence and integrity at the close of the war and that to avert anarchy and chaos the empire must be well armed and ready.

The Manchu civil and military authorities are, accordingly, re-arming the various banner organizations, Manchu, Mongol and Chinese. To the end of February, 28 batallions over and above 7,000 Manchus equipped with good arms in 1902, had been provided with either Mannlicher or Manser magagine rifles. Factories are working to provide 30,000 more for the Chinese forces at Pekin. The forces will form the nucleus of a modern Chinese army to be organized with out delay. An army of half a million men is expected to be ready, well armed, for the defense of Pekin before June.

INQUIRY OF BOILER EXPLOSION.

Will Endeavor to Learn Cause of Brockton's Awful Disaster.

Brocton, Mass., March 30.—The inquest was begun in police court today into the cause of the boiler explosion at the shoe factory of R. B. Grover & Co., here on March 20, when nearly three-score of lives were known to have been lost in the destruction by fire.

A number of persons are still missing. District Attorney A. P. French of Plymouth, conducted the inquiry, which is designed to show whether and responsibility for the explosion attached to the state, the city, the boiler insurance company, the owners of the factory or employes.

Andrew G. Lundell, one of the injured factory employes died today, making the 58th death known to have been caused by the disaster.

Secretary Hay at Gibraltar.

Gibraltar, March 30.—The White Star line steamer Cretic, from New York, March 18, for Naples, with Secretary of State Hay and Mrs. Hay on board, arrived here this morning. In an interview Mr. Hay said he felt much better than when he left New York. He thoroughly enjoyed his trip. Although Secretary Hay has improved he has by no means recovered his health. The Cretic will sail from here at noon for Algiers.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION IN GOTHAM SUBWAY

Train Just Unloaded When Accident Occurred.

MOTORMAN, AS YET, IS MISSING

Train Ran Against Heavy Bulk of Head Pine at End of Tunnel and Cars Took Fire—Explosion Was from Dynamite Cartridges.

New York, March 30.—There was a heavy explosion in the subway tunnel at One Hundred and Sixty-Eighth street and Broadway today, where the tunnel is 120 feet below the surface of the street. Fire apparatus and extra police were summoned. The explosion took place at a point beyond that to which the trains are running at present, and near the American League Baseball park.

An uptown subway train which had been emptied of passengers at One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street, and was run to One Hundred and Sixty-eighth street to be switched across to the downtown tracks, got beyond the control of the motorman and ran into a pile of construction material in the One Hundred and Sixty-eighth street station.

The cars jumped the track and then caught fire. It was reported that some loose powder which was to be used in digging the tunnel was ignited and exploded. For some time it was not known whether or not the train crew had escaped.

An attempt was made to operate an elevator running through a shaft from the tunnel to the street, but it could not be moved. Some of the employes in the tunnel ran through the tube to the One Hundred and Eighty-first street station, and reached the surface at that point.

The firemen passed the hose down into the tunnel and fought the blaze of the burning cars.

Two hours after the accident the motorman of the subway train had not been found, and it was reported that he had been pinned in his compartment in the first car and either killed by the explosion or burned to death.

It was reported that the conductor and guards of the train and a gang of 25 laborers employe in the tunnel had escaped by way of the shaft at One Hundred and Eighty-first street station.

The firemen made desperate efforts to get at the burning cars, but were unable to do so, as the tunnel was filled with smoke on both sides of the stations where the accident occurred, and the firemen were driven back each time they essayed to reach the scene.

The only way they had of reaching the fire was to lower to the shaft and pour water indiscriminately into the tunnel below in the hope of flooding the the fire.

It was ascertained that the train had run against a heavy bulk head of pine, which had been built across the tunnel and that the wood was set on fire after the collision.

There were two explosions, and both were later said to have been of dynamite cartridges used in blasting. One occurred soon after the collision. The other occurred much later.

New Treatment for Maniacs.

New York, March 30.—By the systematic use of various forms of hot and cold baths, jets and douches, vapor and hot air baths, the Manhattan state hospital on Wards Island has been done away entirely with the sedatives or mechanical restraint for the patients, even when violently demented or in strong delirium. This hospital, the first public institution in the country to adopt the use of water as a recognized part of its course of treatment, has been experimenting and tabulating results for some time.

Rockefeller's Gift Accepted.

Boston, March 30.—The Prudential committee of the American board reported today that it had decided to accept the Rockefeller gift and that it could not accede to the request of those who protested against the acceptance of the $100,000 offered by John D. Rockefeller.

GIVES CREDITORS HER DOWER.

Wife of Banker Plant Surrenders Her Personal Property.

Macon, Ga., March 30.—Mrs. Margaret H. Plant, widow of the late Robert H. Plant, has renounced her right to dower and a year's support for herself and children in a petition filed by her attorneys with the clerk of the United States court.

The renunciation is absolute and voluntary, and involves about $100,000 to be applied to the discharge of claims against the estate of the dead banker.

By her dower Mrs. Plant was entitled to a one-third life interest in all real estate in the possession of the late R. H. Plant, at the time of his death. As this real estate was valued at $274,000, Mrs. Plant's claim against the estate of her husband would have amounted to nearly $100,000. This she freely applies to the discharge of her husband's debts, and further renounces all claim to the year's support which she is entitled to under the law for herself and minor children.

BOYS CONFESS TO ROBBERIES.

They Stole Candy and Toys and Distributed Them to Others.

Chicago, March 30.—Ten boys of Harvey, a suburban town, have confessed in the juvenile court, to the robbery of 18 stores, three churches, two school houses and a railway station.

The plunder consisted of candy and toys, and it was a too free distribution of candy that led to their capture.

"We started in just for fun," sobbed one of the culprits, "but when we got into it we couldn't stop. We just had to go right on stealing because there was always some boy that did not have what he wanted." The boys, whose ages range from 12 to 15 years, are all of respectable families. Their repentance, added to the pleadings of their parents, induced Judge Mack to release the prisoners on probation.

Banished from North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., March 30.—E. Guy Hall, whose name was much mentioned during the notable trial of James Wilcox for the murder of Nellie Cropsey at Elizabeth City three years ago, has been ordered by a judge of the superior court to leave the state. The constitution permits such a sentence to be imposed in North Carolina. Hall was convicted of selling whisky in prohibition territory. He has left that place, the order taking effect immediately and has gone to a point in the southeastern part of the state. It is said that he will go to New York city.

The car in which the body was carried was filled with fragrant flowers, many of them wrought into magnificent designs. An escort of veterans accompanied the body, which will be met at Atlanta by Colonel Robert Lee, brother of Miss Lee.

The interment is expected to be at Lexington, Va.

Official Order to Confederate Veterans.

New Orleans, March 30.—The following special orders were issued:

"Headquarters United Confederate Vetarns, New Orleans, La., March 28, 1905. Special Orders No. 34.—A feeling of sorrow, deep and profound, will enter every southern home this morning when it is learned that Miss Mildred Lee, the youngest child of our immortal chieftain, Robert E. Lee, died suddenly in this city on yesterday.

"Gifted by nature with a wonderful mind, the liberal education which her idolized father gave her, improved and broadened by extensive travel and close observation, set her apart as an ideal representative of the womanhood of the south, and her queenly and courteous bearing called forth the admiration of all who were so fortunate as to know her.

"She was devoted to the old soldiers of the confederate armies, and was never so happy as when in conversation with them, or talking to others of the glorious deeds of our boys. Her untimely death is a distinct loss to the whole south, and an extreme grief to every confederate veteran.

"By command of

"STEPHEN D. LEE,

"General Commanding.

"Official: William E. Mickle, Adjutant General and Chief of Staff."

Dominicans Are Satisfied.

San Domingo, March 30.—The news of the acceptance by the government at Washington of the proposition of the Dominican government that the government of the United States assume control of the finances of this republic with the view of setting aside a portion of the revenues for the payment of its debts pending definite action in the part of the American senate had a most favorable effect here. The opinion as expressed that the action taken by the authorities at Washington will change the situation completely.

End Life In Wedding Gown.

Chicago, March 30.—Carefully attired in her wedding gown, with a knot of faded orange blossoms at her throat, Mrs. Mary Hoffman, the beautiful young bride of Herman Hoffman was found in her apartment at No. 119 Rurling street, nearly dead from inhaling gas, which, it is believed, she turned on in an effort to kill herself because she fancied her husband of six months no longer loved her. She died later at St. Joseph's hospital.

Striking Matches Cause Boy's Death.

Charlotte, N. C., March 30.—John Parks Black, the 5-year-old son of Mr. John Black, of this city, died as the result of burns received a few days previous. The boy, with several playmates, was striking matches for sport. His clothing caught on fire, and before assistance could reach him he was fatally burned. He died in great agony.

ALLEGED SWINDLER HAS LEFT THE TOWN

Paid Lawyer's Fee, Secured Diamonds, and Made Departure.

WILL BE FREE UNTIL FALL

Bond Was Fixed at $500, Was Secured Through Jacksonville Parties, and Stevens Released to Wander at Free Will for a Few Months.

S. Stevens, the negro who was arrested on an Atlantic Coast Line train by Conductor Gilmer while he was in the act of leaving the city and turned over to the authorities, searched and about $900 in diamonds and $185 in cash was found on his person, who was committed to prison and afterwards released upon a bond of $500 for his appearance at the fall term of the circuit court, has paid his lawyer's fee, secured his diamonds, which were in keeping of the attorney, Robert E. Davis, and left the city. It is to be presumed that he will put in his appearance at the fall term of the court.

Stevens, when arrested, produced receipts from a New York firm showing that he had purchased the diamonds. Marshal Pinkoson wrote the firm, who replied that as far as they were aware Stevens was all right; he had purchased stones from them at various times, and had always paid promptly for them.

The most damaging fact against Stevens is the charge of the Waldo negro, John Jones, that he (Stevens) had flimflammed him out of a certain sum of money on a pretense of a bond for faithfulness in the matter of fulfilling a position at a hotel, and the exact amount having been discovered in a concealed place in his clothing.

Attorney Davis stated that the bond, which was furnished by Jacksonville parties, was carefully examined and approved by the clerk of the court of Duval county. In the failure of Stevens to return and the estreatment of the bond, in the opinion of those familiar with the matter, the bondsmen will be perfectly good for the amount.

PLEASANT TEA PARTY

Given at the Home of Col and Mrs. W. H. Palmer, North Gainesville.

On Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Col. and Mrs. W. H. Palmer in North Gainesville, was assembled a party of ladies—ten in number—to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Palmer, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Graves, and it goes without saying that the event was one long to be remembered. It was a gathering from the various sections of this country, that are often found in Florida, where they came from all points for health. Besides Mesdames I. E. Webster, J. E. Ackley and J. W. Turner of North Gainesville, there were present Mrs. Daniel Graves of Bradshaw, Neb.; Mrs. Lazlier of Philadelphia; Mesdames English, Shaw and Wolfe of Union City, Ohio; Mrs. Geo. D. Wilcox and daughter, Florence, of Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of this city.

Music and a social time made the time pass pleasantly, Mrs. Wilcox performing several operatic selections on the piano, and when the party sat down to tea around a table laden with the many good things for which the hostess is noted, and the floral decorations with roses of almost every hue, made it a sight to charm the eye of the lovers of beauty, as well as the delicacies to satisfy the taste of the most exacting epicure.

The parting at the conclusion of the event was a scene to be remembered, as in a few days many of them will be hundreds of miles from each other, but only to meet here again, where all must come to enjoy the blessings that here abound and the generous hospitality of the benign hostess.

The Boys Drill Well.

The military at the Seminary continues to keep up its good work as is evidenced by the very fine drills that occur there daily. The boys have gotten the new tactics down pat and drill them finely. The battalion parade the boys put up on the square the other day was hard to beat.

Captain Hughes, who has charge of this department, is very painstaking and thorough in his work, and nothing short of the best will he accept. The Captain's ambition is to make his department the best in the country, and that he is succeeding one has only to watch the boys drill to become convinced.

BANK OF ALACHUA.

Mr. F. B. Godfrey, cashier of the Bank of Alachua, located in the enterprising village of Alachua, was in the city Thursday and made The Sun a pleasant call.

In conversation with a Sun reporter Mr. Godfrey spoke in highest terms of the business of his adopted home. Having come from Georgia a short time ago, where he had extensive experience in the banking business, the Bank of Alachua was opened for business about the last of October, and notwithstanding it was during the dull season, business has been most satisfactory, as the statement of the transactions up to the present time shows.

While this concern aims to be liberal and prompt to serve its patrons, it also shows strongest in its organization, with a capital of $25,000, and a board of directors made up of the following well known substantial citizens and business men: L. O. Benton, president; J. C. Bishop, vice-president; F. B. Godfrey, cashier; L. N. Pearce, C. A. Williams, J. L. Cloud and A. R. Williams.

HUGE STATUE OF BUDDHA.

The Mammoth Reclining Figure at Rangun, Burma.

To the eastern traveler the statue of Buddha is a familiar sight. From Colombo, in Ceylon, to Kobe, in Japan, he is everywhere greeted by the same calm, impassive and mysterious face of the eastern preceptor of perfection. But in no city in the orient do the form and face of Buddha constitute so frequent or so essential a part of the city's decoration as in Rangun, Burma, starting place of Mr. Kipling's famous "Road to Mandalay," the stronghold of Buddhists. Notable even among the countless statues of Rangun is the mammoth Buddha, representing the strange teacher not standing or sitting crosslegged, as in the majority of statues, but reclining on a huge raised couch, his mighty form stretched out for 200 feet, while his shoulders rival the width of that wonder of the ancient world, the Colossus of Rhodes, their titanic breadth reaching fifty feet.

But one among the wonders of Rangun, this mighty figure rests near the famous Shoay Dagon, the center of the Burmese Buddhist world, crowned by the golden pagoda, which rises 300 feet above it, its walls covered with pure gold, the gift of a prince who contributed his weight in gold to the pagoda. In the Shoay Dagon there are countless other statues of Buddha, as well as relics of Gautama, the last Buddha. All, equally with the huge reclining Buddha, form a part of the religious rites of the Buddhists, for the essence of Buddhism consists in the struggle to become like Buddha, to attain his perfection by obedience to his precepts. To do this it is necessary always to have Buddha in mind, and it is for this reason that every city in the Buddhist world is literally crowded with his images. Buddha himself is not deified. Potentially every Buddhist may attain his perfection, but only by the eternal imitation of his practice.

But, while statues such as Rangun's huge colossus are important in Buddhist worship, of even more importance are the relics of Buddha.

It was about the Shoay Dagon that the Burmese made their last fierce fight when the British came to Rangun. A Venetian traveler of 300 years ago visiting the Shoay Dagon has left a description of this famous temple, conceding its claim to rivalry with his own Venice, that would serve as a contemporaneous description, and today, as in untold centuries past, the Burmese still bring their offerings of flowers and fruit, candles and paper flags, to lay before the huge reclining Buddha, whose hands would afford comfortable standing room for four of the worshipers and whose gigantic face wears the strange, inscrutable expression of calm which is the outward mark of spiritual Buddhism.—New York Tribune.

The Turkey's Real Name.

The original name of the turkey was oocoocoo, by which it was known by the native Cherokee Indians. It is supposed that our pilgrim fathers, roaming through the woods in search of game for their first Thanksgiving spread, heard the oocoocoo calling in the familiar tones of our domesticated fowl, "Turk, turk, turk." These first Yankee huntsmen, mistaking this frightened cry of the bird for its real song, immediately labeled it "turkey," and turkey it is to this day. Much more beautiful and musical was the Indian name oocoocoo, the notes peculiar to the flock when sunning themselves in perfect content on the river beaches.—Sunset Magazine.

THE GAINESVILLE DIRECTORY.

Will be Distributed on Steamships, in Boards of Trade and Libraries.

Work on the Gainesville Directory is progressing nicely, and the compiler, Jesse E. Bartz, is meeting with encouragement in his efforts from all classes. The book will contain not less than a hundred pages, will be substantially and handsomely bound in cloth, and will prove a regular encyclopedia of the city.

The compiler, in addition to a thorough distribution in Gainesville, will arrange to place the directory upon every Clyde steamship between Jacksonville and New York, the elegant Clyde St. Johns river steamers, and will send a copy to every board of trade and every public library in the State. While this may not prove the direct benefit for which the book is intended—the benefit of the people of Gainesville and the winter visitors and strangers coming here and using same for reference—it will mean a big advertisement for Gainesville, and may have its effect in inducing visitors here, for it will be an attractive publication, a publication which would be a credit to a city of much larger population.

The publisher expects to go to press with the directory within the next three weeks, and the book will be before the public as soon as the printers can furnish it thereafter.

FUNERAL OF DR. MATHESON.

Held From Presbyterian Church Thursday Afternoon.

The funeral of the late Dr. Benjamin Haile Matheson, the sad death of whom occurred Wednesday afternoon, was held from the First Presbyterian Church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Thos. P. Hay officiating.

The church was crowded with relatives and friends of the deceased, who had congregated to pay their last respects and honor to their distinguished friend, whom they all loved.

Rev. Mr. Hay made some beautiful and impressive allusions to the brilliant life and noble character, hymns were sung, and, altogether the ceremony was a sad and impressive one.

The interment was in Evergreen cemetery, and a large number of friends accompanied the remains to their last resting-place, where the ceremonies were concluded.

The floral tributes by loving friends were as numerous as they were fragrant. Among the floral contributions were handsome flowers from J. J. Finley Chapter, also members of Kirby Smith Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

A FINE OPERATION.

After Suffering Several Weeks Prof. Foskett Had Eye Removed.

After suffering intensely for several weeks from an eye which had been affected from cold contracted from a case of lagrippe, Prof. A. J. Foskett, who is at the Odd Fellows' Sanitarium, underwent the operation of having the afflicted member, the sight of which had disappeared, removed Thursday. The operation was performed by Dr. J. Harrison Hodges, assisted by other physicians.

The diseased eye had really been weak and affected for several years, and had it not been removed would have resulted in blindness of the other. The patient bore the operation remarkably well, and the physician states that he will be enabled to come out in a few days.

Friends of Prof. Foskett will be gratified at this information, as he has been a great sufferer.

WILL CHANGE PRINCIPALS.

Beginning Monday Prof. S. E. McIntosh Will Manage Public School.

Owing to her departure Sunday for Tallahassee, where he will remain during the session of the Legislature, Prof. J. G. Kellum, principal of the Gainesville Graded and High School will relinquish his position today.

Prof. Kellum will be succeeded by Prof. S. E. McIntosh of Rex, one of the most efficient instructors in the county. Prof. McIntosh has just closed a successful term of the Island Grove school. He is regarded very highly by the leading educators and managers of educational affairs of the county, and will no doubt prove eminently successful and popular in his new position.

Prof. Kellum has been quite popular among the faculty and his pupils, all of whom regret the necessity of leaving before the expiration of the term.

APPETITES.

Druggist W. M. Johnson Explains How Vinol Creates a Desire for Food.

"Vinol is the greatest aid to digestion that we have ever known," said Mr. Johnson.

"It contains all of the active, medicinal curative elements that are found in cod liver oil, without any oil or grease.

"These medicinal elements act so favorably upon the stomach that this organ obtains for itself the elements necessary for creating new flesh, muscle tissue, and for making rich, red blood.

"When the stomach acts easily and naturally a desire is created for good, simple food, and a good appetite is the sure result.

"With cod liver oil in its old form, the medicinal elements which it contained were unable to do their best work because of the obnoxious oil that enveloped them.

"Now, in Vinol we have those same medicinal elements separated from the vile-tasting oil, and we have a tonic and rebuilder that is simply marvelous in its action.

"We want everyone in Gainesville to know more about our Vinol, how it cures, and what it cures. Certainly Vinol is the greatest tonic and rebuilder we have ever sold.

"Lack of appetite is not itself a disease, but a symptom of weakness showing itself in the nerves of the stomach, which control the desire for food. We guarantee Vinol will cure this weakness or give back your money." W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

THE TENT MEETINGS.

Biblical Institute Will Begin Series of Meetings in Tent Tonight.

A commodious tent, with a seating capacity of several hundred, has been erected by an aggregation which styles itself the Tent Company, on the Burnett lot, corner South University and East Union streets, and the first meeting will be held this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The object of these meetings will be to further the cause of Christ, and as there are some interesting and impressive speakers, the services will no doubt prove of deep interest and accomplish good.

The tent will be lighted and comfortable seats will be provided. A cordial invitation is extended to the public generally. Let everybody come. Bring your Bible, pencil and note book, and a yearning for the fullness of God.

Rochelle Ramblings.

Rochelle, March 30.—Mrs. Youngblood and Granam of South Carolina are visiting Mr. Adams and family at this place.

There was quite a crowd from Rochelle to Magnesia Springs Wednesday morning, the jolly party participating in a moonlight drag ride. All report a pleasant time.

A THRIFTY TENOR.

Tamagno Walked, but His Carriage Bill Had to be Paid.

Several years ago a tenor named Tamagno was engaged to come to America and sing at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York. He was paid $1,000 a night. This is a sum which would make many people willing to put up with small extra expenses. But not so Tamagno. Before leaving Europe he made a stipulation that he be furnished with a carriage to and from the opera house every night. This was inserted in the contract.

When he arrived he found a carriage waiting at the pier. He rode uptown—always at the expense of the opera company—and took a look around. Then he decided to put up at the Marlborough hotel, which happens to be only three short blocks from the Metropolitan Opera House. Every time he sang he walked up to the opera house, refusing to take a carriage. He said he had just as soon walk. When it came time for him to return to Europe he presented a bill for over $200 "for carriages to and from the opera."

"But you didn't take a carriage," said the manager of the opera company.

Tamagno bowed low and invited the manager to look at the contract. He repeated the same suggestion whenever anything was said about it. The result, of course, was that the $200 had to be paid. He stood out for it with as much insistence as if he hadn't seen a dollar for a month, and all the time he was getting $1,000 a night.

MRS. MAYBRICK ON STAND.

Washington, March 30.—The testimony of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, in the taking of depositions in the case of her mother, Baronness Von Roques, against David W. Armstrong, and others, involves valuable tracts of land in Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky, was commenced today.

Mrs. Maybrick displayed marked capacity for avoiding direct answers to the rigid questioning to which she was subjected. She declared with respect to the signing of certain papers in prison which were brought to her by Counsel Potter, that she was so imperfectly informed as to the communications that happened between Mr. Maybrick and her mother that she simply signed the documents without any clear knowledge of the transaction. Upon being pressed for a more direct answer, Mrs. Maybrick insisted that when she signed the papers she did not not know the nature of their content.

The defendant produced a number of letters purporting to have been written by her mother, Mr. Potter and others before and during her imprisonment, but she expressed her inability to identify the handwriting of any one of it years ago.

INVESTIGATING STANDARD OIL.

Federal Grand Jury at Kansas City Has Taken Hand in Matter.

Kansas City, March 30.—The Journal today says:

The Standard Oil company is to undergo a grand jury investigation by the federal government such as the beef trust is now burdened within Chicago. The oil trust investigation is to take place in Topeka, according to a government official here, and is to begin in a couple of weeks. Incidentally, the railroads are to be dragged in.

A grand jury was drawn at Topeka a few days ago, ostensibly to look after the regular criminal business of the Kansas federal court. It will attend to that business, but its really big task is to investigate Standard Oil methods. Great secrecy is maintained in regard to the matter. The names of the jurors are kept from the public.

It is also learned that Commissioner Garfield will aid the grand jury investigation in Kansas.

To Build Warehouse in Birmingham.

Birmingham, Ala., March 30.—It is understood that as soon as W. D. Neabitt, the president of the Birmingham Warrant Warehouse company, returns from New York, plans will be perfected for the erection of the proposed warehouse of the company for the storage of cotton, etc., in this city. This company is the first organized under the propaganda of the recent Southern Cotton convention at New Orleans, and will be carried out to the letter. The warehouse is to be a mammoth concern, and will charge a maximum of 17 cents for the storage of a bale of cotton per month.

Not Guilty of Murder.

Wrightsville, Ga., March 30.—Walter Walker, accused as one of the murderers of Clayton Williams, was found by the jury not guilty. The trial of five others accused of the same murder will follow. These cases are attracting much attention.

This is an age of advanced ideas as well as some very odd ones, and when Rev. Joseph Milburn of Chicago asserts that "the theater is a greater moral power than the pulpit," he is in advance of the majority of people in this country. The stage, even when viewed from the front, has some fierce elevator to present to the people, while behind the scenes it is not near so pleasing to the refined eye. There are many conscientious people on the stage, we know, but we don't know much about Chicago preachers behind the scenes.

UNIONS AS AMERICANIZERS.

Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright has been conducting investigations into the effect of labor unions on certain classes of immigrants, whom it is next to impossible to reach and uplift through ordinary channels, and finds that their efforts have been productive of beneficial results, says a report recently made.

Mr. Wright's research was conducted in the stock yards at Chicago, where the foreign element, largely Lithuanians, Slovaks and Russian Poles predominates. The clan spirit at first so much in evidence, he declares, is gradually eliminated by the unions, whose officers refuse to permit the recognition of racial lines, and who strive to break down the secretive traits of character instilled by life in a country where the term government conveys nothing but distrust and terror and teach the newcomer that he is a part of it. He is taught that he should not be satisfied with the standard of living to which he has been accustomed; that he should have better wages, better working conditions, better opportunities, better homes, better clothes, the aim being to inspire higher aims and broader views. Such a course naturally creates discontent, but this is justified by Mr. Wright, who points out that, whatever the union's motives for creating such a feeling, the fact that "it breeds discontent among immigrants—which is the first step towards their improvement and ultimate Americanization—renders the union so far a public benefactor."

The principal may be admirable, says one paper, but its application is often faulty, and frequently carried to an extreme that nullifies any merit it might possess under a more judicious exercise of such power.

FLORIDA'S LIBEL LAWS.

The libel laws of this State are, to say the least, most peculiar, and those affecting newspapers should have the attention of the Legislature.

Under our laws at present, a publisher of a communication reflecting upon any person, though it be signed with the name of the author, and paid for as an advertisement, is held equally responsible with the author. So also is a job office that prints a libelous circular. No matter how innocent the publisher may be of improper motives, or how honestly he may believe the statements to be true, he is held as guilty as the author who wilfully and from pure malice defames the character of his fellow man.

It is seldom in this State that publishers are criminally prosecuted for libels published under such conditions, but they are frequently made the victims of annoying civil suits that are little less than highway robbery, usually instigated by some 2x4 lawyer with an itching palm and a desire to share in the spoils.

A committee from the State Press Association will wait upon the next session of the Legislature and endeavor to secure proper remedy.

The State Fair is causing a very hot war of words between the Jacksonville and Tampa papers, and Henry Crutcher, who says he lives in Jacksonville, wanted to get his name in the Tampa papers so bad that he actually spoke of Tampa being the proper place to hold the annual State exhibition. He will be ostracised by the editor of the colored column of The Metropolis and the following verse is suggested for a war song:

A man named Crutcher,
Talked as much or
More than he really ought;
This Jacksonville scamp a
Tale told in Tampa,
And now his heart's blood is

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

Until the baseball season is fairly opened and ring contests are allowed to proceed unmolested in California, the various boards of strategy will discuss the war between Japan and Russia. Many able arguments have been advanced, and from second place the Japs have moved up to the top of the first column with a percentage of 1,000, and a fielding and batting average that looks as though they were pennant winners. One man who has watched the game ever since the opening has become thoroughly convinced that the Russians are "mighty poor in the field," but as runners they are first-class, although the Japs excel in stealing bases, and will win through the errors of the Russians.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

MRS. HANEY COMING.

State Organizer of W. C. T. U. Will Lecture in Methodist Church.

Mrs. C. S. B. Haney, State organizer and worker in the W. C. T. U., will be in the city April 3rd and 4th, and will deliver two lectures in the Methodist church, her subjects being "Christian Citizenship" and "Mormonism."

Mrs. Luelle McKee, president of the County Union, Sharon, Pa., says of her: "Mrs. C. S. B. Haney gave her lecture on 'Christian Citizenship' in our church, November 6, 1904. The audience was delighted, both with the lecture and lecturer. The lecture is well arranged, the material is first-class, convincing in many places and truly eloquent.

"The lecturer is pleasing in her manner, forceful and distinct in her delivery, sincere in her beliefs, earnest in her method. Her lecture on 'Mormonism' the next evening was also well received and greatly appreciated.

"Mrs. Haney is worthy of a hearing anywhere before any congregation, her subjects such as should be more thoroughly understood."

The general public is cordially invited to attend these lectures. There will be no admission charged.

Four Facts For Sick Women To Consider

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has an Unequalled Record of Cures—Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Is Confidential, Free, and always Helpful

FIRST.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhœa, displacements of the uterus, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

SECOND.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney troubles, all uterine and ovarian inflammation, weakness and displacements, regulating menstruation perfectly and overcoming its pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the change of life.

THIRD.—The great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

FOURTH.—Every ailing woman in the United States is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. From symptoms given, your trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of the vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Surely, any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

Store Account Causes Tragedy.

Chester, S. C., March 30.—Langdon Booner, timekeeper and manager of the store of the Wylie mill in this city has been shot and instantly killed by Will Perry, an employe. The trouble is said to have started from a mistake of $4.50 in Perry's time. Booner showed Perry that it was not his mistake, and told him to go and see the superintendent. Perry walked to the door of the store, turned and fired twice at Booner, the first shot taking effect in the chin, and the second struck his heart, killing him at once. Perry made his escape, but is being followed by 15 or 20 men, who are determined to capture him.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Col. John M. Fuller of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease by all druggists, at 50c a bottle.

Supreme Test.

She was a Wisconsin girl of more than the usual share of this world's goods who became engaged to the man from Maine, a civil engineer, whose business was in the far west. Compelled to separate soon after the engagement, 2,000 miles soon divided the two lovers. Business duties called the man away, but frequent letters helped to shorten the months of separation. Turning her attention to cooking, this girl of almost unlimited wealth soon proved her devotion to her absent lover by mastering the difficulties of cooking in anticipation of that happy time when she should have a home of her own. Triumphantly she wrote her lover, "I can make lemon pie, custard pie and Washington pie all myself!" Then did this man from Maine and the land of orchards assert his loyalty to his home state most vigorously and back over the wires, 2,000 miles away, came this telegram, brief, but emphatic, "Try apple!"—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

Rich German Commits Suicide.

Savannah, Ga., March 30.—John Pape, a German, 28 years old, blew out his brains some time after midnight Tuesday night in the yard of F. H. Haar, opposite the Cathedral cemetery. Pape had about two years ago received $3,000 from the division of his father's estate in Germany, and was to receive shortly $27,800 from an aunt who died in California. Pape was a hard drinker and in bad health. This is supposed to have preyed upon his mind until he committed the deed.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles F. Lemberger of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at all drug stores.

AFRICAN SANDSTORMS.

The Conditions Which Bring About These Deadly Blasts.

The sandstorms of African deserts are caused by the great power of the sun's rays, the extreme dryness of the air and the small conducting power of the sand. The superficial layers of sand in the deserts of Africa and Arabia often become heated to 200 degrees F. to a depth of several inches. The air resting on this hot sand becomes also greatly heated, thus causing ascending currents. As a result air flows in from all sides, and, different currents meeting, cyclones are formed, which are swept onward by the wind prevailing at the time. Since the temperature of the air, originally high, is still further raised by the heated grains of sand with which it is loaded, it rapidly increases to a most intolerable degree. In the shade it has been known to reach 126 degrees. It is to the parching dryness of this wind, its glowing heat and its choking dust and not, as is sometimes supposed, to any poisonous qualities it possesses that its destructive effects on animal life are to be ascribed. The effects of sandstorms are most terrible, large caravans being frequently overwhelmed and destroyed by them. It was by their agency that the armies of Cambyses and Sennacherib were annihilated.

DEEP SEA ANIMALS.

How Those Who Live Below All Vegetation Get Their Food.

"Naturally the fish of the deep portions of the ocean are carnivorous, no vegetable life being found below 200 fathoms," writes W. S. Harwood in Harper's Magazine. "In the Atlantic ocean the vast Sargasso sea, containing 3,000,000 square miles of surface—a great marine prairie as large as the whole of the United States exclusive of Alaska and dependent islands—affords vegetable food for uncountable animals, which in their due time die and are precipitated to the depths, their bodies in turn to be eaten by the animals which live far below all vegetation. So it is throughout the whole ocean; animal life is constantly falling from the surface waters for the support of the animal life of the abyss. A very large number of the deep sea animals are exceedingly tenuous or translucent in form—so to put it—having no special organs of nutrition, but taking in their nourishment through the walls of their bodies, appropriating from the water the food which suits them. Some of them have a bony structure, a skeleton, which they form also from the water, silica and carbonate of lime being the chief skeleton forming materials."

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anaemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Shirel, Middlesborough, Ill., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Pepys' Furnace.

An electric resistance furnace was used by Pepys in 1815 for the cementation of iron. He took a piece of pure, soft iron and cut a slit along its length. The slit was filled with diamond dust, which was prevented from falling out by fine iron wire. The portion of the wire containing the dust was wrapped in mica. The wire thus charged was heated quickly to redness by the current from a battery. On opening the wire Pepys found that the diamond dust had disappeared and that around where it had been the wire had been converted to steel.—London Engineer.

Followed Her Instructions.

Mrs. N. was giving instructions to her new servant: "Before removing the soup plates, Mary, always ask each person if he or she would like any more."

"Very good, madam."

Next day Mary, respectfully bowing to one of the guests, inquired, "Would the gentlemen like some more soup?"

"Yes, please."

FORTIFICATIONS.

They Play but a Secondary Role In the Defense of States.

A fortress spells immobility and dispersion. We should therefore look askance at it until proof is given that it has a definite purpose to fulfill in a reasoned scheme of strategy. We must not allow ourselves to be led away by the glamour surrounding a heroic defense. We must look to the end and leave panegyrics to poets. We must, in short, regard all fortification as an auxiliary and nothing more. A fortress, because it is a fortress and because it is ours, is not necessarily an advantage and may be the reverse. If we gain battles we gain the enemy's fortresses; if we lose them he gains ours, whether they are in the interior or upon the sea. In each case the larger the garrison the greater the disaster. Fortresses, and, in fact, all fortifications, have never played anything but a secondary role in the defense of states, and no nation has ever yet been saved by them. They can as auxiliaries occasionally assist an army and they can aid naval capital, wisely invested and wisely used, to bear splendid interest, but they can never reestablish moral superiority when once it is lost nor create it by the virtue attaching to its parapets if it does not exist. Over the portals of the fortress or harbor of refuge should be written in the largest and blackest of characters the words that Dante discovered over the gates of hell.—Military Cor. London Times.

The Best Cough Syrup.

S. L. Apple, Ex-Probate Judge, Ottawa Co., Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

TESTS FOR DIAMONDS

SIMPLE METHODS BY WHICH ONE MAY DETECT IMITATIONS.

The Hardness of the Genuine Stone, Its Resistance to Hydrofluoric Acid and Other of Its Peculiar Properties—Colored Diamonds.

If you doubt the genuineness of your diamonds or stones which you contemplate purchasing it is not necessary to submit them to an expert. By studying the following methods of testing these gems, says the Columbus Press Post, you may become your own expert.

For the first lesson take a real diamond and an imitation. Drop them in glasses of water. The imitation will blend with the water and become almost invisible, while the real one will be distinctly visible, shining out whitely through the liquid. Dry and clean the two stones, and on the flat side of each put a tiny drop of water. On the real the drop will hold its globular form and can be led about with a pin point. The drop on the glass one will spread.

Study the two stones with a magnifying glass. The facets of the false one are even and regular. On the other they are of varying sizes. The reason for this is that a diamond cutter with a good gem will sacrifice symmetry to weight, preferring to leave some slight irregularities in the planes and edges than to reduce the stone's value. The material in a false stone being of little value, the cutter makes as finished a job as he can of it, the appearance counting for more than the stone itself.

If a real diamond be used as a miniature reading glass, aided by a large magnifying glass, a tiny dot on paper appears clear and clean. Substitute the false stone, and several points or one badly broken one will be seen owing to unequal refraction.

Then you can try the familiar experiment of scratching a sheet of glass. Because your stone will scratch does not prove its genuineness, however. Try to break the glass evenly on the scratch. No other stone can cut through the outer skin of a sheet of glass and give certainty to an even fracture like a diamond.

Your true diamond is proof against the hardest file, but the instrument will easily scratch any imitation that has ever been made.

Having scratched your pretty bit of glass till it is worthless, drop it and the diamond into hydrofluoric acid. Before long the glass will be dissolved, but the diamond will not suffer at all.

Then there is still another experiment. Take a bit of stuff with red and white markings, pass the stone to be tested over it and closely observe the result. If the stone be an imitation the colors will be distinguishable through it; if it be a diamond no difference of color will be appreciable.

A genuine diamond rubbed upon wood or metal, after having been previously subjected to the rays of the electric arc, becomes phosphorescent in the dark. This cannot be said of any of the imitations. If the stone to be tried be covered with borax paste and after being well heated in the alcohol flame dropped into a glass of water the proof will be instantaneous. The glass imitation will fly into bits, while the genuine stone will not be affected. Finally, try to crush between two hard plates a diamond and an imitation and learn the difference.

After the diamond the sapphire is the hardest stone. With her more beautiful sister she possesses also the quality of resisting the attacks of the file, but she is, however, cloudy in appearance and of a milky hue. The topaz is slightly yellowish and surrenders to the cutting teeth of the file. There are a great number of white diamonds, but a pure, clear, transparent stone without a shade of color is more rare than is often supposed.

Besides white diamonds there are some which exhibit the shades of red, blue, green, yellow, brown, black and pink. Heat sometimes causes a diamond to change its color, and after a time the color thus acquired becomes permanent. Yellow diamonds, or those commonly denominated "off color," furnish the greatest variety of shades and some of them exceed in beauty all other stones of that color.

Specimens of canary colored diamonds are by no means rare. They may almost be said to be common. A pink or rose colored diamond is of great value, and the red diamond, surpassing the ruby in its magnificent coloring, is considered the most beautiful of all the precious stones, being exceedingly rare. The one bought by Paul, czar of Russia, weighed ten carats and cost him two and one-half million francs. A perfectly black diamond is almost as rare as a red one.

For beauty the blue stones come directly after the red diamonds. Those possessing the deep blue, and in this respect resembling the sapphire, are indeed most beautiful gems, differing from the sapphire only in quality and by the magnificent fiery colors peculiar to the diamond. The only true blue diamonds come from the mines in India. The varieties of green are not so rare as the blues, reds, blacks and pinks, but those of grass green hue like the beautiful emerald are seldom found. Where they do exist, however, they surpass in brilliancy the finest emerald.

In place of the Brazilian diamond, which of late years has become quite scarce, Cape diamonds of much inferior value and brilliancy are often sold. To be able to distinguish between these gems is an accomplishment possessed by the few.

READ THIS.

Lexington, Tenn., June 5, 1901.

This is to certify that about March last I suffered intensely with my back and kidneys. Just prior to this I had undergone treatment for bladder trouble and was relieved, except the treatment was followed by the above trouble. It was recommended that I try "Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery." I took one dose on retiring at night, and to my agreeable astonishment, I found myself relieved. One dose did the work. There is no bosh about this. It is wonderful.

Respectfully,
C. R. Scott,
Proprietor Scott House, formerly county chief clerk, postmaster, etc.

READ THIS.

Lexington, Tenn., June 5, 1901.

This is to certify that about March last I suffered intensely with my back and kidneys. Just prior to this I had undergone treatment for bladder trouble and was relieved, except the treatment was followed by the above trouble. It was recommended that I try "Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery." I took one dose on retiring at night, and to my agreeable astonishment, I found myself relieved. One dose did the work. There is no bosh about this. It is wonderful.

Respectfully,
C. R. Scott,
Proprietor Scott House, formerly county chief clerk, postmaster, etc.
